As a result of the arguments on the objections to the AMH designations, the Plan Proponents have provided line by line objections to the AMH designation. As a result of the arguments on the objections to the Libby designations and pending a ruling from the Court on those objections, for the convenience of the parties and the Court, the Plan Proponents have now provided line by line objections to all of the Libby designations.

In conjunction with the attached Charts, the Debtors are providing the Court with a binder of the designations which indicate the testimony designated, the objections still pending and the counter-designations, if any. The Debtors are also providing the Court with a CD or DVD that contains all of the designations and the Charts. The Debtors are also placing these Charts and a copy of the Binders on its FTP site so that all parties may access all such designations.
